

Stage of Listening Instruction	Related Metacognitive Strategies
Planning/predicting stage
1. Once students know topic and text type, they predict types of information and possible words they may hear.	1. Planning and directed attention
First verification stage
2. Students verify initial hypotheses, correct as required, and note additional information understood.	2. Monitoring
3. Students compare what they have written with peers, modify as required, establish what needs resolution and decide on details that still need special attention.	3. Monitoring, planning, and selective attention
Second verification stage
4. Students verify points of disagreement, make corrections, and write down additional details understood.	4. Monitoring and problem solving
5. Class discussion in which all contribute to reconstruction of the text's main points and most pertinent details, interspersed with reflections on how students arrived at the meaning of certain words or parts of the text.	5. Monitoring and evaluation
Final verification stage
6. Students listen for information that they could not decipher earlier in the class discussion.	6. Selective attention and monitoring
Reflection stage
7. Based on discussion of strategies used to compensate for what was not understood, students write goals for next listening activity.	7. Evaluation
